Section I – NAME

The name of this Council is the Clayburn Middle School Parent Advisory Council.

The Council will operate as a non-profit organization with no personal financial benefit accruing to members. The business of the Council will be unbiased in respect of race, religion, gender, politics, sexual orientation and physical or mental ability.

Section II – PURPOSES OF THE COUNCIL

The purposes of the Council will be:

1. To promote the education and welfare of students in the school
2. To encourage parent involvement in the school and to support programs that promote parent involvement
3. To advise the school board, principal and staff on any matter relating to the school
4. To participate in the work of the School Focus Team through the Council's elected representatives
5. To promote the interests of public education and, in particular, the interests of Clayburn Middle School.
6. To provide leadership in the school community
7. To contribute to a sense of community within the school and between the school, home and neighbourhood
8. To provide parent education and professional development and a forum for discussion of educational issues
9. To assist parents in obtaining information and communicating with the principal and staff about their child's progress or other concerns
10. To assist the principal and staff in ensuring the highest safety standards are maintained in the school and neighbourhood
11. To organize and support activities for students and parents
12. To provide financial support for the goals of the Council, as determined by the membership
13. To advise and participate in the activities of the Abbotsford District Parental Advisory Council (Abbotsford DPAC) and the BC Confederation of Parent Advisory Councils (BCCPAC)

Section III - INTERPRETATION OF TERMS

“community organizations” means groups that demonstrate an interest in education and are not already included in the scope of the Council’s constitution and bylaws

“council” means Parent Advisory Council

“district” means British Columbia School District No. 34

“District Parent Advisory Council” or “DPAC” means the Abbotsford District Parent Advisory Council, which is organized according to the School Act and operating as a district parent advisory council in School District No. 34

“parent” is as defined in the School Act and refers to:

(a) the guardian of the student or child;

(b) the person legally entitled to custody of the student or child; or

(c) the person who usually has the care and control of the student or child

and, for the purposes of these bylaws, means the parent or guardian of a child or children enrolled in School District No. 34

“Parent Advisory Council” or “PAC” means any organized group of parents recognized under the British Columbia School Act, Bill 67, Division 2, Section 8

“school” means any public educational institution as defined in the British Columbia School Act operating within School District No. 34

Section IV – MEMBERSHIP

Voting members

1. All parents and guardians of students registered in Clayburn Middle School are voting members of the Council.

Non-voting members

2. Administrators and staff (teaching and non-teaching) of Clayburn Middle School may be invited to become non-voting members of the Council.
 - a. Occasionally administrators and staff at Clayburn Middle School are also parents of students registered at the school (hereafter referred to as a staff-parent). This presents a unique opportunity for the PAC to gain an understanding of staff's perspective on PAC issues, which is appreciated in our culture of co-operation
 - b. Staff-parents will be prohibited from voting on PAC financial issues
 - c. A staff-parent will be expected to abstain from voting as a parent member of the PAC on any PAC issue in which they are in a position of conflict of interest as determined by the Chair.
3. Members of the school community who are not parents or guardians of students registered in the public school system may be invited to become non-voting members of the Council.
4. At no time will the Council have more non-voting than voting members.

Compliance with bylaws

5. Every member will uphold the Constitution and comply with these bylaws.

Section V – MEETINGS OF MEMBERS

General meetings

1. General meetings will be conducted with fairness to all members.
2. General meetings will be held not less than four (4) times during the school year. One of those meetings will be the annual general meeting.

Conduct

3. At general meetings, members will not discuss individual school personnel, students, parents or other members of the school community.
4. The Council will refrain from partisan political action or other activities that do not serve the interests of the school or the public school system.

Notice of meetings

5. Members will be given fourteen (14) days notice of general meetings.

Section VI – PROCEEDINGS AT GENERAL MEETINGS

Quorum

1. A quorum for general meetings will be four (4) voting members, three (3) of which will be executive and one (1) non-executive.
2. If at any time during a general meeting a quorum ceases to be present, business then in progress must be suspended until there is a quorum present or until the meeting is adjourned or terminated.
3. If procedural problems should arise, Robert's Rules of Orders (www.robertsrules.org) will be used to resolve the situation, unless they are in conflict with the guidelines in these bylaws.

Voting

4. Except as provided elsewhere in these bylaws, all matters requiring a vote will be decided by a simple majority of the votes cast (50% plus 1).
5. In the case of a tie vote, the Chair does not have a second or casting vote and the motion is defeated.
6. Members must vote in person on all matters. Voting by proxy will not be permitted. In the event of a virtual meeting, all attendees' screens must display their full name and cameras must be on. For verification, you may need to provide your child(ren)'s name and division.
7. Except as provided elsewhere in these bylaws, voting is by a show of hands or, where requested by two voting members present, by secret ballot. In the event of a virtual meeting, all voting will be conducted by an online poll, using licensed software.
8. Parents, who are also employees or elected officials of School District No. 34 or the Ministry of Education, with the exception of noon hour supervisors and crossing guards, must abstain from voting on all financial matters.
9. A vote will be taken to destroy the ballots after every election.

Section VII – EXECUTIVE

Role of executive

1. The executive will manage the Council's affairs between general meetings.

Executive defined

2. The executive will include the Chair, Vice Chair, Secretary, Treasurer and Immediate Past President and such other members of the Council as the membership decides.

Eligibility

3. Any voting member of the Council is eligible to serve on the executive, except members of the same household, parents and/or guardians of the same student, relatives by blood or marriage, employees or elected officials of School District No. 34 or the Ministry of Education, with the exception of noon hour supervisors and crossing guards.
4. A School District No. 34 employee may sit on the PAC Executive when there is no other PAC member who is able, or willing, to take on roles of the Executive, but will abstain from voting on financial matters as it may be a conflict of interest.

Election of executive

5. The executive will be elected at each annual general meeting.
6. Elections will be conducted by the Chair of the PAC, except where the Chair has been nominated for a position and there is a conflict of interest.
7. A nomination committee may be formed at each April general meeting or as required by the Executive.
8. Nominations will open a minimum of three (3) weeks prior to the annual general meeting and will be received up to and during the annual general meeting until declared closed by the Chair or delegate.
9. Officers shall be elected from the slate of nominees by simple majority of those members present. Nominations may be accepted from the floor.
10. In the event that any executive positions remain unfilled, nominations for those positions will remain open until such time as an eligible candidate is identified. Should more than one candidate come forward, members shall vote by secret ballot to fill the position at the next general meeting.

Term of office

11. The executive will hold office for a term of one (1) year beginning July 1 until June 30.
12. No person may hold the same executive position for more than four (4) consecutive years.

Vacancy

13. If an executive member resigns or ceases to hold office for any other reason, or there is a vacancy in any executive position, the remaining executive members may appoint an eligible member of the Council to fill the vacancy until the next annual general meeting.

Removal of executive

14. The members may, by a majority of not less than 75% of the votes cast, remove an executive member before the expiration of his or her term of office and may elect an eligible member to complete the term.
15. Written notice specifying the intention to make a motion to remove the executive member must be given to all members not less than fourteen (14) days before the meeting.

Remuneration of executive

16. No executive member may be remunerated for serving on the executive, but may be reimbursed for expenses reasonably and necessarily incurred while engaged in the Council's affairs.

Section VIII – EXECUTIVE MEETINGS

Meetings

1. Executive meetings will be held at the call of the President (Chair). Other than the annual budget planning meeting, executive meetings may be combined with a general meeting.

Quorum

2. A quorum for executive meetings will be a majority (50% plus 1) of the members of the executive.

Notice

3. Executive members will be given reasonable notice of executive meetings.

Voting

4. All matters requiring a vote at executive meetings will be decided by a simple majority of the votes cast (50% plus 1).
5. In the case of a tie vote, the Chair does not have a second or casting vote and the motion is defeated.
6. Virtual meetings are permitted for the executive as long as all members agree to the format.

Section IX - DISTRICT PARENT ADVISORY COUNCIL AND EXTERNAL COMMITTEE REPRESENTATIVES

District Parent Advisory Council representative

1. One representative to the Abbotsford DPAC may be elected annually from among the voting members who are not employees or elected officials of School District No. 34 or the Ministry of Education, with the exception of lunch hour monitors and crossing guards.

Election of DPAC representative

2. The election of the representative to the DPAC must be by secret ballot.

Term of office

3. The DPAC representative will hold office for a term of one year from July 1 to June 30.

Vacancy

4. If the DPAC representative resigns or ceases to hold office for any other reason, the membership may elect an eligible member of the Council to fill the vacancy for the remainder of the term. Such election must be by secret ballot.

External committees

5. The membership or executive may elect or appoint a member who is not an employee or elected official of School District No. 34 or the Ministry of Education to represent the Council on an external committee or to an external organization.
6. The representative will report to the membership or executive as required.

Section X – CONDUCT OF EXECUTIVE AND REPRESENTATIVES
